A water park is one of the most visited places when it comes to leisure and entertainment. Water parks want to offer the most attractive, exciting, and appealing rides. Ideally, a water park has attractions ranging from Thrill rides to family slides to kids play area making it popular amongst people of all ages and walks of life.

Amusement water parks generally feature a few water rides, such as the log flume, bumper boats, and rowing boats. Such rides are usually gentler and shorter than roller coasters and many are suitable for all ages. Water rides are especially popular on hot days.

The Water Parks industry has made a big splash over the five years to 2017. Increased consumer spending has played into the industry's growth as consumers splurged on discretionary items such as water park tickets. Waterpark related development is expected to grow in 2017, with over 40 expansions and new facilities opening.

The waterpark industry continues to expand in North America, with more than $550 million worth of new investment in indoor and outdoor waterparks and their related resorts in 2016. Waterpark related development is expected to grow in 2017, with over 40 expansions and new facilities opening.
