Poultry farming has grown into a full-fledged commercial agro business. The demand for eggs and broiler meat are on the increase with growing population. The concentration and specialization of the poultry industry has led to development of allied industries to supply the products needed to support this industry. Suppliers of housing equipment, hatchery equipment, processing and packaging equipment, health products and feed are all needed to support the poultry industry. The present egg production is about 60,000 millions, while broiler production is 600 millions. Greater growth for this industry lies ahead and the value of poultry products will multiply. This is a very good investment for entrepreneurs.
