Amla powder is largely used for the production of Ayurvedic medicine. There is good demand of the Herbal medicinal product. The dried fruits of E.ribes are used in decoction for fevers and for diseases of the chest and skin. They are also used for ringworm and other skin diseases. It is also used for coughs and diarrhoea. According to the report of W.H.O, over 80% world population relies on traditional medicine largely plant base, for primary healthcare. Unfortunately, Indias share in the global medicinal plants export trade is just 0.5%. There is good scope for new entrepreneurs to venture into this field.
