Most Indian prefers goat flesh to other meat, although it is comparatively higher in price. Goat's milk is popular with many being highly nourishing. Goat skins are in a great demand for leather for gloves & shoes. Its hair is used for rope making. The meat animals in India are goat, sheep cattle, buffalo, pig and poultry. Till recently goat meat was contributing about 54% to the meat production, but now their contribution is limited to just 20%. Goat farming now well recognized as a small scale cottage industry. The goat products like meat and fibre are costly and much in demand. On the view of the fact that the increasing demand of meat processing industry as well as woollen industry, the goat farming has a wide potential. New comer can well venture into this field.
