Computer is simply a tool for people to use; it is a machine that can solve any problem by accepting data, performing certain operations on that data and presenting result of those operations. Modern age is a computer age. The development of the computer in last couple of years particularly its national and international connectivity has increased its importance not only for professionals or researchers but also for all including housewives. Many of the multinationals are also in Indian Market. However, demand is expected to grow very rapidly and to reach to 25 lakhs numbers by 2004-2005. It is believed that the use of computer as communication will increase the demand for computers and revolutionise the world.??
